3. [REDACTED] Met with Mrs. Kennedy, Staff Assistant to Representative William C. Cramer, concerning the correspondence transmitted by buckslip of 22 January from Mr. [REDACTED], concerning news broadcasts of Communist action in Mexico. Discussed the subject matter of the letter briefly with Mrs. Kennedy along the lines suggested in conversation with the Mexican desk and ascertained from Mrs. Kennedy that no further response would be expected from the Agency.

9. [REDACTED] At his request, I met with Sam Scott, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, who requested whatever information we might be able to provide concerning [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Advised Mr. Scott that although the man appeared to the Subcommittee to have strong European ties, if in fact he is an American citizen, information on his background would be available only through the Bureau.
